

CRIME PREVENTION & Sport Conference

City of Stoke-on-Trent

STOKE CITY FOOTBALL CLUB

Wednesday 6th December 2017

Registration from 8.30am

Conference 9.30am - 4.45pm

StreetGames has once again teamed up with Stoke-on-Trent City Council, and several Police and Crime Commissioners, for the annual Crime Prevention and Sport Conference.

Topics to be covered at this year's conference:

- Mental Health and Well-being; The aspects that affect young people's mental health and how sport can be used to reduce the risk factors
- Proving the Impact; Insight from evaluators and partners
- The Policy Landscape; Ensuring you have the partnerships to deliver
- Referral Routes; Available programmes and how to access them

The conference is for crime reduction and community sport practitioners.

Compre: BBC's Mary Rhodes

Confirmed and invited speakers include:

- Colin Allars, CEO, Youth Justice Board
- Hardyal Dhindsa, Police and Crime commissioner for the Derbyshire
- Hampshire Chief Constable Olivia Pinkney, National lead for Policing Children and Young People
- Jane Ashworth, CEO, StreetGames
- Poppy Jaman, CEO, Mental Health First Aid England

Special Guest

John McAvoy

*(Bank Robber Turned
Ironman & World Record Holder)*

ONLY
£99

...including lunch and refreshments

Limited places available book now!

www.streetgames.org/events